

Bridging the Gap: Medical Interpreter Training

Bridging the Gap is the gold standard in medical interpreter training. Upon completion of this training, bilingual individuals will have the foundational skills and knowledge needed to begin their medical interpreting careers.

Bridging the Gap offers 40-hour and 60+-hour interpreter trainings in Seattle and beyond.

For registration, class schedule, and inquiries, contact:

bridgingthegap@xculture.org

"I wanted to thank you for that fantastic training! I enjoyed it very much and feel like I learned more in five days than in some of the courses I took in college."

Bridging the Gap graduate

Topics covered

- Basic interpreting skills
- Interpreter roles and ethics
- Mediating cultural differences
- Basic medical terminology
- And much more

CCHCP is a nonprofit training and consulting organization founded in 1992. The organization's mission is to serve as a bridge between communities and health and human services institutions to advance access to quality health care that is culturally and linguistically appropriate.